

Resources

Emergency Card for Infants with Suspected Fatty Acid Oxidation Disorders

This individual _____,

Birth date _____

Had a positive newborn screening test for _____, a fatty acid oxidation disorder. Breast milk, formula, or a glucose containing fluid should be provided at least every four- (4) hours. If this infant is unable to take oral fluids, IV fluids containing glucose should be provided, even if the baby looks perfectly well.

Name of Physician _____ Phone _____