

Lyme disease case onset & activity of blacklegged ticks in Ohio

Blacklegged ticks are active throughout the year in Ohio. The adults are active in the spring, fall and winter. The nymphs are active in the spring and summer and the larvae are active late summer. The onset of human Lyme disease cases occurs year round in Ohio but peaks in summer following the emergence of nymphs. (Source: ODH, Zoonotic Disease Program)