Governor Kasich addresses infant mortality in Ohio in his first State of the State Address and makes reducing low birth-weight babies a priority.

The Governor's Office of Health Transformation, and other state agency partners initiate an unprecedented package of reforms to improve overall health system performance for pregnant women and infants.

ODH and the Ohio Collaborative to Prevent Infant Mortality host the first biannual statewide Infant Mortality Summit.

The 2014-15 state budget includes funding for a targeted campaign to educate parents, caregivers and healthcare providers about infant safe sleep practices.

ODH partners with CityMatCH, a national organization that supports urban maternal and child health initiatives at the local level, to launch the Ohio Institute for Equity in Birth Outcomes to address racial and ethnic disparities.

ODH negotiates new contracts with Medicaid managed care plans to include enhanced maternal care requirements for women at highest risk for poor pregnancy outcomes.

ODH and the Ohio Collaborative to Prevent Infant Mortality host the second biannual statewide Infant Mortality Summit.

Ohio Medicaid adopts a Medicaid Family Planning State Plan Amendment to expand eligibility for family planning services for women and men up to 200 percent of the federal poverty level.

The Governor’s Office of Health Transformation, and other state agency partners initiate an unprecedented package of reforms to improve overall health system performance for pregnant women and infants.

The 2014-15 state budget includes funding for a targeted campaign to educate parents, caregivers and healthcare providers about infant safe sleep practices.

CityMatCH launches the Maternal Opiate Medical Support Project (MOMS) to link such pregnant women with treatment which is associated with improved neurocognitive outcomes in infants of opiate-addicted mothers.

Ohio Institute for Equity in Birth Outcomes teams launch evidence-based interventions to address highest risk populations in targeted areas.

The state launches the Maternal Opiate Medical Support Project (MOMS) to link such pregnant women with treatment which is associated with improved neurocognitive outcomes in infants of opiate-addicted mothers.

ODH sponsors the Ohio Sudden Infant Death Network’s “Safe Sleep Community Forums” around the state.

The Progesterone Quality Improvement Project launches to improve birth outcomes for Medicaid recipients by encouraging wider use of progesterone treatment.

Ohio Institute for Equity in Birth Outcomes teams launch evidence-based interventions to address highest risk populations in targeted areas.

ODH launches “Centering Pregnancy” healthcare delivery model in four community health centers to improve birth and infant health outcomes in high-risk communities.

ODH and the Ohio Collaborative to Prevent Infant Mortality host the second biannual statewide Infant Mortality Summit.

ODH sponsors the Ohio Sudden Infant Death Network’s “Safe Sleep Community Forums” around the state.