

Infant Deaths

“Infant Death is at the heart of our inadequate healthcare system. Why should any infant die because their mother had no health insurance before she became pregnant, had little access to treat anemia, depression, asthma, diabetes, or hypertension, or to safely space her last pregnancy? Infant deaths are preventable if we realign our priorities and our financial incentives.”

--Patricia Temple Gabbe, MD, MPH.

Turning up the Volume
on Infant Mortality
Every Baby Matters!