

Pool Recall History List

ODH Public Swimming Pool Program

The Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has issued recalls for:

1. October 29, 2014; CPSC - Recall #15-014

Waterway Plastics Recalls Spa Drain Suction Covers Due to Risk of Entrapment.
Hazard: The drain suction cover can become disengaged from the spa wall, posing an entrapment hazard to consumers.

2. May 26, 2011; Revised March 14, 2012; Release #11-230

Main drain covers manufactured by a variety of companies. For more information on this recall, click on the following link: CPSC - Release #11-230. A FAQ document has also been provided to CPSC at the following website, CPSC - Release #11-230 - FAQ.

3. January 19, 2011; Release #11-101

The CPSC has also issued a recall of a Safety Vacuum Release System (SVRS) device manufactured by Vacless Systems, Inc. of Sylmar, California. For more information on this recall, click on the following link: CPSC - Release #11-101.

Updated: 10/30/14